Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

If you have more than one sole proprietorship, use a separate sheet and attach it to this petition.

If you indicate that you are a small business debtor, you must attach your most recent balance sheet, statement of operations, cash-flow statement, and federal income tax return or if any of these documents do not exist, follow the procedure in 11 U.S.C. 1116(1)(B).

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

- ☐ Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

- ☐ Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

12/15

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245	filing fee
$75	administrative fee
+	$15 trustee surcharge
$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,

most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

Contract

I. Parties & Purpose: This is an agreement for legal services entered into on the date shown below between Law Solutions Chicago LLC, or one of its wholly owned subsidiaries (hereinafter referred to as "LSC" or "Law Firm") and the individual (or married couple) (hereinafter referred to as "Client") relating to advice, counseling, and filing for bankruptcy relief. LSC is a debt relief agency and law firm that files bankruptcy cases on behalf of its clients. LSC does not represent clients in defense of collection suits.

II. Client's Obligations: In addition to paying the Attorney Fees in a timely manner pursuant to Paragraph III, Client also agrees to carry out all of Client's Obligations pursuant to Section 521 of the bankruptcy code; to provide any and all requested information to LSC in a timely matter, no longer than 30 days (LSC will provide Client with a checklist); to make Full Disclosure of all of Client's assets, liabilities, and financial information regardless of Client's intentions; to notify LSC of any change of address, email or phone number; and to cooperate fully with any LSC staff member. Client acknowledges that LSC functions as a group practice and that more than one attorney may have responsibility for the case and that various attorneys may perform the different tasks associated with the case. LSC makes no representations or guarantees about the extent of the services provided by the individual attorney the Client originally consulted.

III. Attorney Fees: Client agrees to pay LSC the flat fee, earned upon receipt, court costs, and optional due diligence products cost as disclosed herein and in the Agreement for basic services rendered. Client agrees to timely pay the fee and court costs prior to the filing of the petition. Client agrees that the fee is earned upon receipt for representation for Chapter 7 or Chapter 13.

Debtor initials

The nonrefundable flat attorney fee for representation in a Chapter 7 is $1275. This is a nonrefundable advance payment retainer. In a Chapter 7, Client agrees to pay all fees and costs prior to the filing of the bankruptcy case with bankruptcy clerk's office. There may be additional fees charged by LSC for delays caused by the client. Client expressly agrees that LSC may deposit funds paid toward the flat fee in LSC's operating account and will not hold them in a trust account.

The nonrefundable flat fee for representation in a Chapter 13 is $3500 plus costs with _____ of the Chapter 13 fee paid upfront and _____ to paid in the plan. Client expressly agrees that the fee arrangement provides for an advance payment retainer. Client also agrees all fees paid upfront are for attorney fees only. In a Chapter 13, it is presumed that the upfront portion of the total flat fee represents work to be performed pre-filing and the remainder is presumed to represent work to be performed post-filing through confirmation. After LSC has done more work than the flat provides, Client agrees LSC may bill per hour. Client also agrees the Chapter 13 flat fee is for work performed pre-confirmation, post-filing work will be billed hourly. Client also agrees if client pays less than $1500 in attorney fees upfront they will do payroll control. Any estimated chapter 13 monthly payment is subject to change.

In addition, there is a court filing fee totaling $306 (Ch 7) or $281 (Ch 13) (subject to change without notice). Client expressly agrees the choice of the type of retainer is Client's alone and Client agrees to the advance payment retainer and not a security retainer and that such arrangement is an express condition of LSC's willingness to handle the case. To Client's advantage, the special purpose of the advance payment retainer will allow LSC to begin working on the case immediately, instead of waiting until the fees are paid in full. All fees paid are the property of the attorney and will be held in the attorney's operating account and are earned upon receipt, subject to reasonableness. Client agrees to reimburse LSC for any reasonable costs and fees incurred by LSC as a result of dishonored checks or dishonored ACH payments. LSC will charge at least $25 for dishonored checks and/or ACH payments to cover the bounced fee and increased collection efforts involved. Failure to pay attorney fees in a timely manner or failure to turn in documents required to file your case within 30 days could cause LSC, in its sole discretion, to close the client file and terminate services (see Paragraph V). At the time the file is closed the client is automatically assessed additional attorney fees of at least $325 for additional work associated with closing out the file and re-opening it in the future. Client agrees that there is an additional fee of $325 for due diligence documents, credit rebuilding package, and handling charges. This fee is due after the attorney fees, then the filing fee is collected. If Client's attorney's fees exceed one thousand dollars JAL may waive this fee at its sole discretion. Client agrees that to reopen the case, LSC must re-evaluate the case and will charge additional fees of at least $375 and may require the Client to provide additional information. Client understands that the Law Firm has retained the services of third party processing and collection entities to collect and distribute funds on behalf of Law Firm. Client expressly agrees that fees tendered by personal check may be processed as ACH transactions. I also authorize verbal changes to my payment instructions including changes to payments, dates, and accounts.

Client agrees that LSC may charge additional fees as its standard billable hour as detailed in Paragraph V for non-basic services. Non-basic services include, but are not limited to: $250 fee to do a rush filing. Adversary proceedings filed under 11 U.S.C. Section 523 or Section 727 (minimum 4 hours of attorney time paid in advance before appearance is filed); motions to dismiss under Section 707(a) or (b); actions to enforce the automatic stay pursuant to Section 362(k); actions to enforce the discharge injunction pursuant to Section 524; Rule 2004 examinations; depositions; interrogatories; other discovery proceedings) other than initial Section 341 meetings; contested motions, amendments to creditor schedules ($150 +$26 filing fee); negotiation or signing of any reaffirmation agreements ($600 for negotiating Client a lower payment); or attending reaffirmation hearings, but does not include advice to the debtor about the reaffirmation process absent a signed Attorney Declaration as contemplated pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 524; delays caused by Client including Client's failure to pay fees in a timely manner, failure to provide information, failure to return paperwork, continued 341 meetings ($150) if continued due to Client's failure to appear, redemption motions pursuant to Section 722, redemption and replacement loan review, motions and related work ($600); reaffirmations at ($150 per reaffirmation), reaffirmation revocations at $250 per revocation, 25% of any garnishment recovery, and motions to avoid liens ($500 per motion). LSC agrees to pursue any third parties who may be liable for payment of additional fees, but failure of LSC to collect fees from a third party does not relieve Client of responsibility for payment.

Full Disclosure: Client agrees to truthfully, completely, and accurately disclose all assets and their value, liabilities and their amount, income and expenses to LSC and on any all bankruptcy paperwork. In addition, client agrees to accurately answer any and all questions posed by LSC and/or a representative agent of the United States Trustee.

Client understands that this agreement becomes effective when Law Firm approves this agreement and accepts Client for the services described herein. Client's first payment will be collected prior to Client's matter being reviewed for acceptance by an attorney. If Law Firm's attorney rejects Client for Law Firm's service, then all funds paid by Client will be immediately refunded.

IV. Law Firm Obligations: Client expressly agrees LSC makes no guarantee regarding the outcome of the bankruptcy case, including, but not limited to, successful discharge of debt, the amount of the Chapter 13 payment, and whether or not LSC can successfully reduce the balance of secured liens. LSC's advice is based on the information as disclosed by Client and Client agrees LSC is not responsible and assumes no liability for changes in the law, changes in Client's financial situation, and or facts as revealed after review of documentation that could affect in any way advice LSC gives Client.

LSC agrees, in consideration for the fee established under paragraph III to provide basic legal services in connection with Client's bankruptcy case. Basic services include, but are not limited to: analysis of financial situation, advice as to whether to file a petition under Title 11 US Code, review of documents, taking creditor calls after $250 has been paid, both pre and post-filing, pre-filing advice, advice during the case concerning the nature and effect of the applicable Chapter of the Bankruptcy Code; preparation and filing of the petition, schedule and statements; representation at the meeting of creditors (only one meeting if continuance is due to Client not showing up); and other basic services. A staff attorney or the law firm or an independent contracting attorney experienced in bankruptcy law not associated with the firm may appear at the Meeting of Creditors in the event of a scheduling conflict of extensive travel. Other basic services include: submitting information pursuant to request from the trustee, and other regular and routine services not specifically stated. Basic services include a limit of ten client calls to LSC. Client expressly agrees that in a Chapter 7, LSC will not file the bankruptcy petition and schedules with the court until all fees and costs have been paid in full. In a Chapter 13, LSC will not file the bankruptcy petition and schedules with the court until the agreed upon pre-filing portion of the fees and all costs have been paid in full. In addition, LSC will not file the case until all required documentation has been provided, all required documents are timely signed, reviewed, verified, and correct.

V. Termination of Services (Refund Policy): Client agrees that LSC will not refund the flat fee if LSC has filed a case on Client's behalf even if the Case has not completed, unless retention of the entire flat fee would be unreasonable. Client understands that attorney's acceptance of the representation of the client means that significant resources of the law firm will be committed to the case and that other work the attorneys would do will be set aside, delayed or turned down. Client also agrees that LSC's services will be considered terminated upon the following events: discharge, dismissal of the case or the closing of the case under Chapter 7, except in instances where Client seeks LSC's services to enforce the permanent injunction (see Paragraph IV above). In the event the client pays the attorney for a case evaluation to start a bankruptcy case or for any other services, all payments to the attorney are not refunded or returned to the client. In the event the time spent on a case goes beyond the flat fee charged and the client cancels the case the client will pay an hourly rate is $350 for partner or owner time, $300 an hour for senior attorney time, $275 per hour for any other attorney time, and $125 for legal assistant and paralegal time. This hourly fee is subject to periodic review and increase to be commensurate with the fees charged by other attorneys of similar experience within the field. Client further acknowledges that any portion of the $250 initial retainer is the cost for post-consultation advice and file set-up and will not be refunded if Client decides to terminate the bankruptcy after file setup and prior to any other work done by LSC. Client owes this fee even if client decides to not move forward with the bankruptcy after retaining LSC. LSC can terminate services for failure of Client to fulfill any of Client's contractual obligations as identified in Paragraph II of this agreement.

VI. Limited Power of Attorney: Client agrees that the signature on this contract also grants a limited power of attorney to LSC to 1) obtain tax information from anyone with whom the Client has consulted regarding tax returns or preparation or the Internal Revenue Service, including but not limited to, copies of Client's tax returns and/or transcripts, and 2) obtain due diligence products including, but not limited to, real estate appraisals and/or comparative market analyses, title searches, asset searches, personal property valuations, and credit reports.

VII. Retention and Disposition of Records: It is LSC's general policy to maintain files for three (3) years starting from the date the case is closed. LSC encourages Client to keep and maintain copies of all bankruptcy related matters. LSC reserves the right to destroy all contents of the file after three (3) years. Client may request a copy of the file by sending a written request. LSC reserves the right to charge a reasonable retrieval and duplication fee of at least $50. Client may also request a copy of their petition filed with the court for a fee of at least $40 and a copy of Client's discharge papers for a fee of at least $40.

VIII. Receipt of Mandatory Notice and Disclosure: The Bankruptcy Abuse and Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 requires LSC to provide mandatory notices/disclosures to Client. Signature on this contract shall be acknowledgment by Client that Client has received, read and understood the two (2) separate documents entitled "Section 527(a) Notice" and "Important Information About Bankruptcy Assistance Services From a an Attorney or Bankruptcy Petition Preparer."

IX. Entire Agreement: The entire contract between the Parties is contained in this instrument, except as otherwise indicated. The parties agree to all of the terms and conditions set forth herein and acknowledge that they have read and understand this Agreement.

X. Severability: In the event any provision of this agreement is found to be unenforceable for any reason by a court of competent jurisdiction, only the offending clause shall be stricken from the agreement and the remainder of the agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

I/we hereby agree to and acknowledge all of the terms above and I/we retained LSC to file a bankruptcy under
